

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE

HEALTH SCIENCES

Presents the

EVELYN HAYES

INNOVATIONS IN HEALTHCARE

SYMPOSIUM

April 8, 2019 | 12:30 - 4:00 p.m.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE & ADDICTION: LOOKING AT THE CURRENT LANDSCAPE & ENVISIONING THE FUTURE THROUGH DIFFERENT LENSES

The symposium will focus on substance abuse and addiction – a major public health challenge – by hosting two panel discussions offering different perspectives on this important issue, resource tables and a poster session. The target audience is caregivers, families, individuals, faculty and students, although ALL are welcome.

12:30-1:00pm – Registration// Resource Tables

1:00-1:15pm – Welcome: Rita Landgraf

1:15-2:15pm – Behavioral Health Consortium Panel

Moderator: Lt. Governor Bethany Hall-Long

Sandy Gibney – Access and Treatment

Joshua Thomas – Changing Perceptions and Stigma

Tamera Fair – Corrections and Law Enforcement

Kim Lowman – Data and Policy

Michelle Marinucci – Education and Prevention

James Ellison – Family and Community Readiness

2:15-2:30pm – Refreshments// Resource Tables

2:30-3:30pm – Panel Discussion

Moderator: Rita Landgraf

Don Keister – Founder, atTack Addiction and Parent

Stephanie King – Certified Peer Recovery Specialist, Connections Community Support Programs, Inc.

Benjamin Fleury-Steiner – Professor, UD Dept. of Sociology & Criminal Justice

Domencia Personti – CEO at Bracebridge Hall, Recovery Centers of America

3:30- 3:45PM – Audience Q&A

3:45 PM – Call to Action

The Tower at STAR Audion
100 Discovery Blvd., Newark, DE 19702
FREE PARKING

RSVP at:
udel.edu/005722